

2010 CYA Basketball Scholarship Application

Introduction

CYA Basketball will offer four scholarships to qualified applicants for use in the scholastic year 2010—2011 as a college freshman. Scholarships up to $1000 will be awarded by the basketball board of directors to a maximum of four seniors (at least one boy and one girl) who have participated in CYA Basketball in their middle school and high school years and who meet the other stated criteria of academic achievement and good sportsmanship.

General guidelines for the application include:

- The applicant must have submitted all requested information on time (If full package is not received, no consideration will be given). Please read all instructions carefully!
- The applicant must display good citizenship and have an exemplary record of community service. Applicant must also have a record of good sportsmanship while participating in the CYA basketball program.
- The applicant must attend an accredited college in the fall of the scholarship program year (2010) and plan on obtaining a four-year degree.
- The applicant must currently have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or better for all 4 Of their high school years.
- The applicant must have played on either a CYA Basketball team or their high school basketball team for at least three seasons during their high school years. In addition, the applicant must have been a registered participant and participated in CYA house or travel Basketball for a minimum of two seasons during their middle and high school years (these two requirements can overlap).

The recipient of a 2010 CYA Basketball scholarship will be a person who is inspiring to his/her teammates and friends, displays good sportsmanship, and brings credit to his/her school and sport. (This scholar-athlete need not have played on their high school basketball team and need not have been a highly skilled player.) NOTE: Applicants must fully disclose any incidents of unsportsmanlike conduct while playing or coaching for CYA basketball. The CYA board reserves the right to revoke or reduce scholarships if unsportsmanlike behavior or serious school disciplinary problems are reported before the end of the Spring 2010 season and 2009-10 school year.

The original deadline of May 15th has been extended to June 10th. The Scholarship Selection Committee will recommend scholarship recipients to the CYA Basketball Board at the regular June meeting. Recipients will be notified by June 21st. Note that checks will be made out to the college that the student plans to attend and will be disbursed by the end of June.
